

ANNOUNCEMENTS for Friday, April 13th, 2018

Today is a B Day

Visit our website for other important Events, Dates, & Activities @<http://harborside.kusd.edu>

- We will be holding a mandatory Australia meeting for students in Mrs. J's room today during intervention. If you have a conflict, please come see Mrs. Kuehl in room 206 sometime this week.
- Attention all Animal Humane Club members: Your next meeting will not be until Tuesday April 17th. Please continue to work on your awareness posters up until this date & don't forget to share it with Mrs. Woods if you haven't already done so. We will decide on which posters will be chosen for display at our next meeting. Remember to "be kind to animals & one another!"
- The word of the week is emulate, a verb meaning to copy or try to do better. The word is appropriately used in the following sentence:
Melissa tried to emulate John's good behavior while taking notes during chemistry class.
- Do you like jazz? You want to help support a community organization? If so, save the date Friday, April 20th, the Wolf's Big Band will be performing a "Jazz Jam" fundraiser concert where all the proceeds will be going to the Midwest Therapeutic Riding Program. The band will be playing lots of recognizable jazz standards, popular tunes, and even a world premiere of a piece composed for the band. There will also be raffle baskets and a 50/50 raffle available during the event. The concert is from 6-8pm in the Reuther Auditorium. Tickets are $5 each and will be sold at the door.
- Attention all Juniors looking to travel to Costa Rica for a January 2019 intensive, there will be a short informational meeting today in Room 324 during lunch. See you there.
- There will be a meeting for all girls in Grades 8 thru 11 who are interested in playing girls tennis in the fall for Bradford and live in the Bradford district on Monday, April 16th at 3:05 P.M. in the Bradford library. All information about the open hitting sessions, team contact days, and forms for the upcoming season will be handed out. If you are unable to attend contact Coach Perrine at nperrine@kusd.edu.
- There will be a Parent/Student meeting for National Archery in Schools Program (NASP) team on April 26th 2018 at 6PM in the 1st Cafeteria. All current team members and perspective team members and parents are welcome to attend.
- THE BAND OF THE BLACKWATCH is looking for girls who would like to be part of the color guard. You would get the opportunity to learn flag routines and march with the band this summer in all of the parades. Our big trip this summer is to DISNEYWORLD where the Band of the Blackwatch will be marching down the main street of the Magic Kingdom. An information meeting will be held on WEDNESDAY, April 18th in the TREMPER Cafeteria.
