ANNOUNCEMENTS for Friday, January 29, 2015

Today is an A Day

Please visit our website for other important Events, Dates & Activities @ http://harborside.kusd.edu

• All students attending Habitat for Humanity, there will be a mandatory meeting Friday during lunch in Mrs. J’s room. Everyone going on the trip is expected to attend. Important paper work will be passed out on the day.

• If you were in the Eco-Friendly Art intensive, please be sure to stop by Rm. 328 to pick up your projects. Unclaimed projects will be donated to the recycle bin at the end of the week.

• Attention Seniors, your senior portrait is due to Mrs. Renaud by Jan. 31st. You must submit your picture as a jpeg to Ms. Renaud at crenaud@kusd.edu.

• Attention Juniors, time is running out to sign up for the ACT Prep class which starts February 2nd. Information and enrollment forms are in the Main Office.

• Any students from Ms. Henkel’s first semester classes or intensives should see her in room 220 today to pick up artwork that was left behind.

• Attention athletes interested in competing in track and field at Indian Trail. There will be a parent-athlete meeting in the IT commons at 7pm Wednesday February 3rd. Contact Coach Kuehl or Coach Vanderhoef with any questions.

• Next Harborside PTSO Action Territory night this year is Friday, February 5th, indoor fun night from 4:00 pm-10:00 pm. Support Harborside while having fun with your friends! 1/3 or more of all sales will return to the PTSO $6/pp indoor = 1 laser tag, 1 bumper car, and unlimited ballocity (53” & under only), w 10 tokens $10/pp unlimited indoor = unlimited laser tag, bumper cars, the Heist, and 12 arcade tokens. Flyers outside office must be presented at Action Territory for Harborside to get credit.

• Any of Mahaffey's Semester 1 art students with artwork or ceramics please pick up your work before Feb. 5th or it will be discarded. All work that has already been glazed will be fired and ready for pick up after school. If you still would like to glaze a remaining piece Ms. Mahaffey will be in room 6 until 3:15 today.

• Attention 10th and 11th grade students. All Kenosha Unified sophomores and juniors interested in learning more about the Youth Options Program are invited to attend an “Evening with the Counselors” presentation. This presentation will be held on Thursday, February 4, 2016. Application materials for the Fall 2016 Youth Options Program will be available at this informative meeting. The meeting will be held in the Indian Trail Academy and High School auditorium, 6800-60th Street from 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. Counselors from KUSD high schools and representatives from Gateway Technical College, the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, and Carthage College will share course information to eligible KUSD students and also work with parents and students so that they understand the policies, procedures and paperwork required for taking Youth Options courses. For more information, see your counselor.

• Interested in summer camp? Camp Timberlee offers a wide range of adventure camps throughout the summer months. For more information, please pick up a brochure outside the main office.